Children of Torah

האזינו

Ha'azinu

(You give ear)

YHWH gave this song to Moshe so that he could teach this song to all of Israel. They in turn were to teach this song to their children. They were to do this from one generation to the next for all the generations to come.

When Moshe had finished speaking all the words of this song to all of Israel, he said to them:

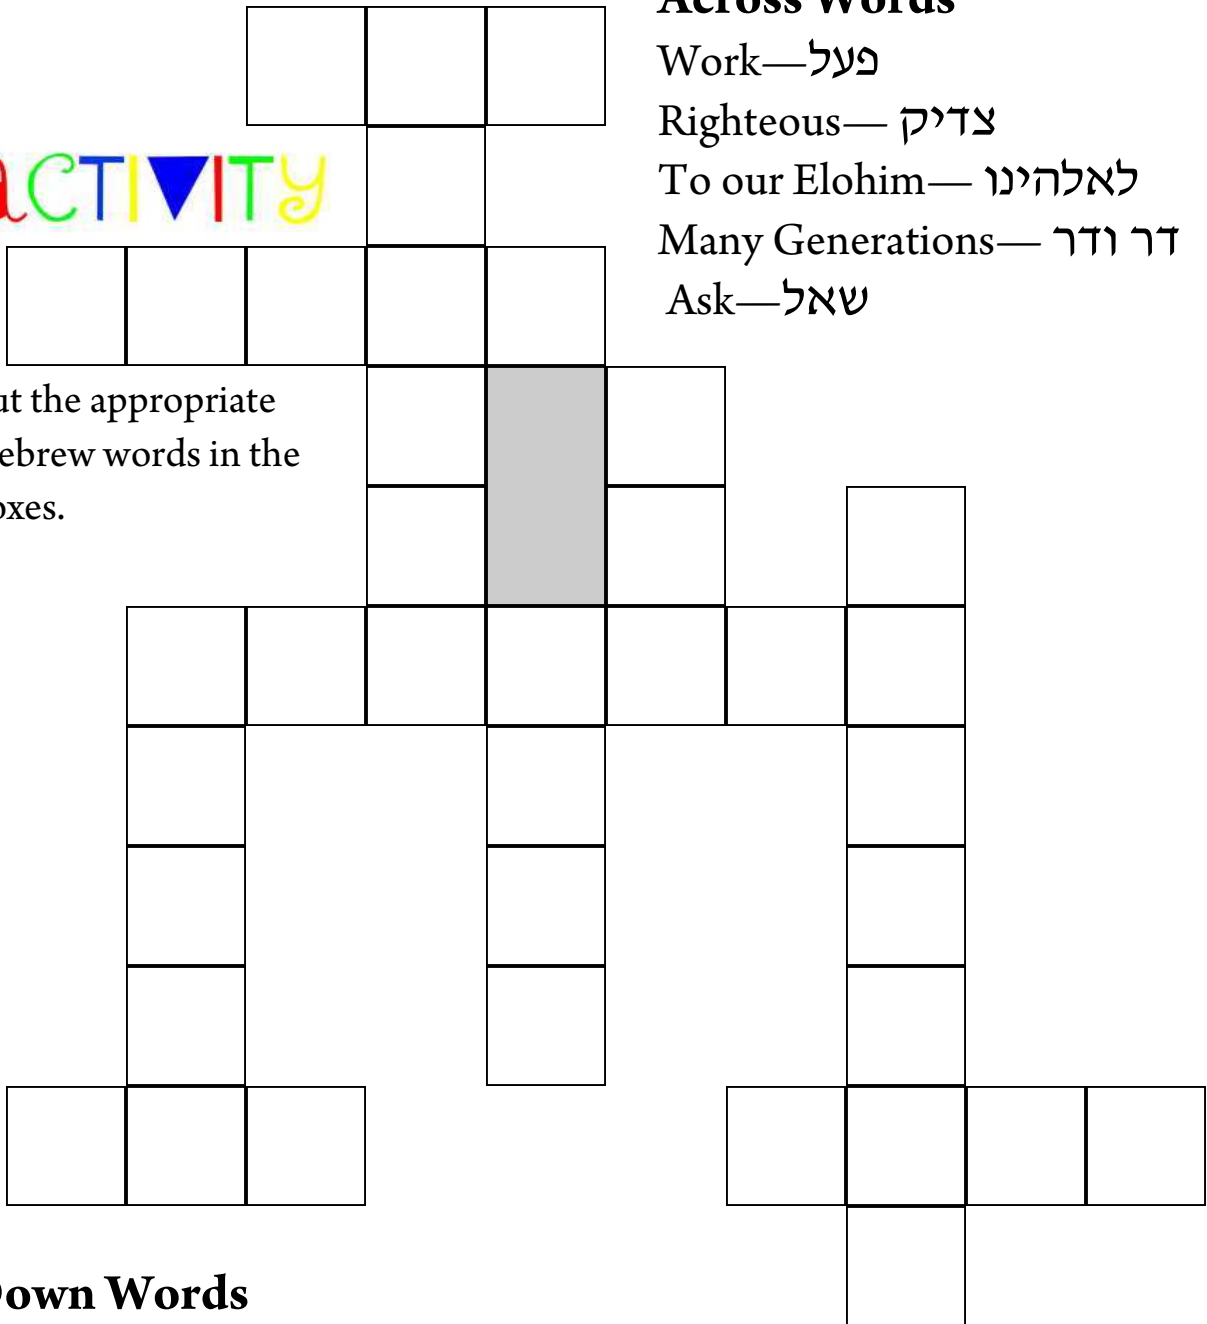

“Set your heart unto all the words which I am warning you this day, which you shall command your children to observe to do, even all the words of this Torah.

“For it is not a vain thing for you; because it is your life, and through this thing you shall prolong your days in the land, where you go over the Yarden to possess it.”

Then YHWH spoke to Moshe and called him up to the top of Mount Nebo. From there YHWH showed Moshe all the land that was promised to Avraham, Yitzchak and Ya'akov.

But because Moshe broke faith with YHWH in front of all the people of Israel when he struck the rock and did not speak to it as YHWH had commanded him, Moshe was not allowed to cross over the Yarden River.
