Ki Teitzei

(When you go out)

If a person sees another man's animal that is injured or in trouble, he is to help that animal, regardless of what day of the week it is, including Shabbat. If an animal is found wandering loose from its owner, then he is to get the animal and find the owner and return the animal to the rightful owner.

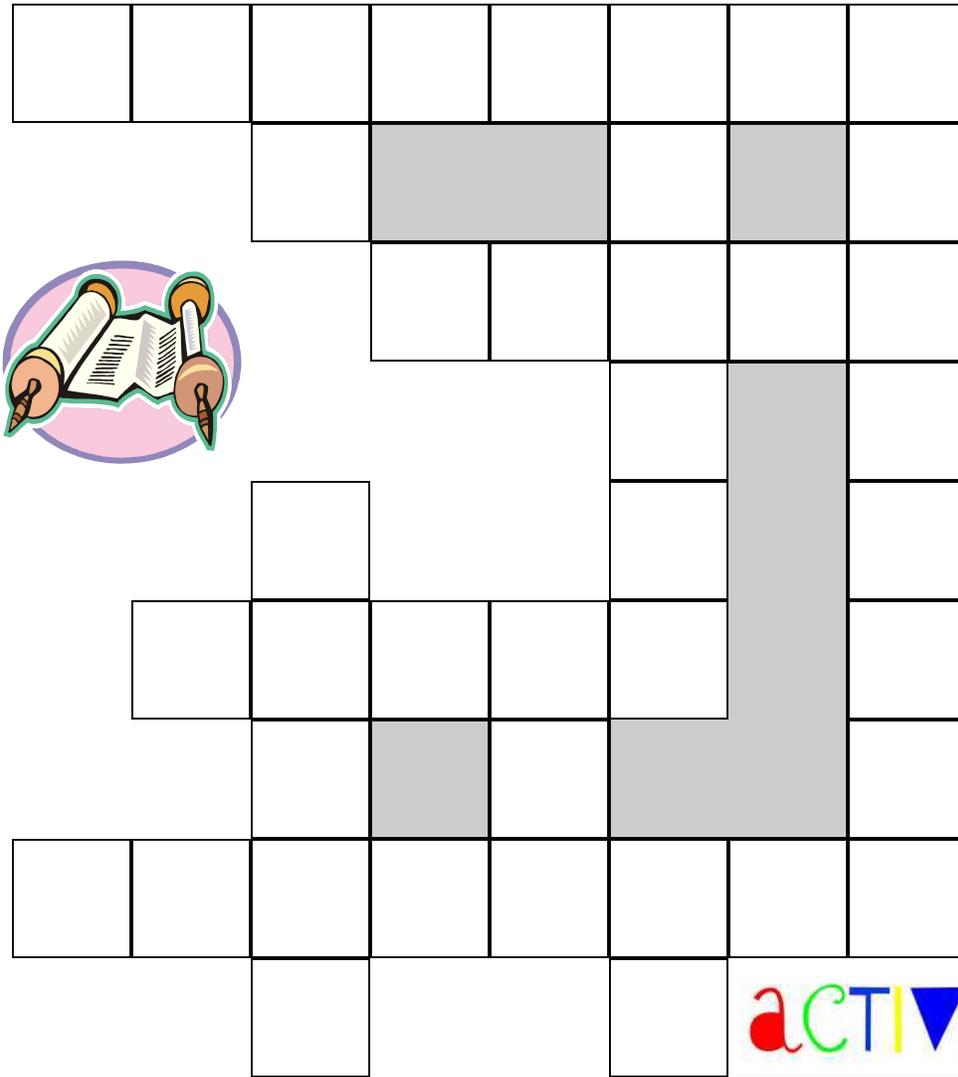

We are to make for ourselves tzitzit (tassels) and place them upon the four corners of the garment with which we cover ourselves.

We are not to have two sets of measures, one greater and one lesser. We are not to have two sets of weights, one greater and one lesser. We are to have one standard of weights and measures for all purposes and for all people. We are not to cheat and swindle our neighbor.

We are to keep and pay all our vows to YHWH our Elohim and not delay in doing what we have vowed. For if we did, then it would be sin in us.

We are not to oppress a hired man who is poor, whether he is native born or a sojourner among us. But we are to pay him his wages each day before the sun sets.

A woman shall not wear a man's clothing and a man shall not wear a woman's clothing, for this is an abomination to YHWH our Elohim.
