YHWH called Moshe to come up on Mount Sinai. Moshe went up to receive the instructions on how His people were to live. These instructions are called the Torah. Moshe was up on the mountain for forty days and nights. The people thought that Moshe had been gone a very long time.

Since the people did not know what had happened to Moshe they went to his brother Aharon and asked him to make them another god. Aharon told them to take the rings out of their ears and their wives' and children's ears and give the gold to him. He then took that gold and fashioned it into a calf made of gold. When the people saw this they declared to one another that this was the god who had brought them out of Egypt. They even called this calf by the name of YHWH. Aharon then told them that the next day was going to be a feast to YHWH.

YHWH saw all that was happening and He was very displeased by it all. YHWH told Moshe to go down to the camp. YHWH was ready to kill them all. But Moshe interceded and asked that YHWH change His mind about doing this. YHWH did not destroy the people. But the only ones of Israel who would stand with Moshe were the Levites. That day the Levites killed 3000 Israelites.
